

CAMPING REGULATIONS

By buying an entrance ticket for and/or by entering the camping, the camping visitor agrees to these camping regulations and the house rules. The camping regulations are an addition to the House rules of Absolutely Fresh. Absolutely Fresh reserves the right to revise these camping regulations. These camping regulations are subject to the General Conditions for Visitors of Absolutely Fresh. Violation of the camping regulations and/or the house rules can lead to denial of access to the camping site and the event site without refund. In case of doubt or discussion, the organization has final say.

Own risk

Entering and staying on the camping site is at your own risk. Absolutely Fresh does not accept any liability for any physical or material damage.

Entrance ticket and access

Access to the camping is only granted on presentation of a valid entrance ticket and a valid ID (driving license, passport or identity card). The entrance ticket is strictly personal.

Rules of conduct camping

Campsite visitors must at all times follow the instructions of the camping hosts, organization, security and emergency services. When placing the tent, emergency exits, paths for the emergency services and passageways must be kept clear and instructions from the camping hosts must be followed.

Wrongly placed tents will be moved by the campsite hosts without the owner's permission. In the event of a reasonable suspicion of the presence of prohibited items (as defined in the house rules and camping regulations) in a tent, the organization may request permission from (one of) the tenant(s) to check the tent. In the event of refusal, the organization reserves the right to deny the tenant(s) of the tent in question access to the campsite and festival grounds and to remove the tenant(s) from the grounds without refund. Finally: use your common sense and do not endanger others!
